

Cyber Awareness

Responsibility, Decision-Making and Community

Students, Faculty and Staff

STOP . THINK . CONNECT

COMPUTER SERVICES

TIP OF THE MONTH

Keep your computer “clean”

- Keep security software current
 - Update your security software regularly
- Protect all your devices that connect to the Internet
 - Computers, smart phones, gaming systems, etc.
- Plug and scan external devices with your security software

Students, Faculty and Staff

STOP . THINK . CONNECT

COMPUTER SERVICES TIP OF THE MONTH

Protect Your Personal Information

- Secure your accounts
 - Protection beyond passwords, many accounts offer additional verification like “text” to your mobile device
- Passwords
 - Combine capital and lower case letters with numbers to create a strong password
- Own your online presence
 - Set privacy and security settings on websites wherever possible

Students, Faculty and Staff

STOP . THINK . CONNECT

COMPUTER SERVICES TIP OF THE MONTH

Connect with Care

- Get savvy about Wi-Fi Hotspots
 - Limit and adjust your security settings on your devices to prevent access to your data
- Protect your $$
 - Banking and shopping, check that your site is security enabled
 - Web address start with HTTPS:// or SHTTP:// are sites that have taken extra secure measures with your data
 - HTTP:// are NOT secure sites for your personal data

Students, Faculty and Staff

STOP . THINK . CONNECT

COMPUTER SERVICES TIP OF THE MONTH

Be a Good Online Citizen

- Safer for you more secure for all
 - Practice good online habits benefits the global digital community
- Back it up!
 - Protect your valuable work and store it safely
- Post only about others as you have them post about you